Bamboo Insurance Recognized on Inaugural InsureTech 100 List

WOODSIDE, California, October 11, 2018 – Bamboo Insurance was named in the inaugural InsureTech 100 list that was released today.

The global data and research firm FinTech Global created the list to identify the 100 innovative companies that every leader in the insurance industry needs to know about in 2019. According to FinTech Global, companies making the final cut were recognized for their innovative use of technology to solve a significant industry problem, or to generate cost savings or efficiency improvements across the insurance value chain. Bamboo, a young company with decades of experience on its executive bench joins an elite group of companies recognized on this year's list. A full list of the InsurTech 100 can be found at <http://www.TheInsurTech100.com>. More detailed information about the companies is available to download in a research pdf on the website.

"We are proud to have been included on this list," said CEO John Chu. "We established Bamboo to improve the experience for agents and policyholders by leveraging state of the art data and technology. We are excited to be a part of transforming the industry, and are pleased to be recognized as an innovator."

Through the AXA XL Company, Catlin Insurance Company, Inc., Bamboo is offering Home Owners HO-3 and Fire, Dwelling products.
